Apple Packing Contest

The Okanagan Federated Shippers who staged the third annual world's championship apple packing contest here on Monday deserve congratulations. It was the first event of its kind held north of the border, the previous two contests having been staged at Yakima.

The event was entirely successful, thanks to the excellent organizational work which the committee headed by L. R. Stephens had done before hand. Officials, packers and interested persons from south of the border were, loud in their praise of the facilities and the smoothness in which the whole event was handled. Mr. Stephens deserves much credit.

While we are naturally pleased that Kelowna was selected for the site of the event, it should not be forgotten that the Federated Shippers are a Valley organization and thus, while local officials did participate in the official ceremony, they were in effect speaking for the other communities in the fruit area. This is further borne out by the fact that there had been a Canadian contest held previously to select the two contestants which the B.C. industry might enter into the world's championship events and the two Canadian packers were not representing their own communities but the entire B.C. fruit industry. Their excellent showing reflected considerable credit on the industry.

This world's championship contest will probably result in a very considerable amount of publicity for the apple industry in general and the B.C. section of it in particular. Newspapers across the continent have already carried stories about it, that it was held in Kelowna and that a Canadian packer placed second. Moreover, shots of it will probably be appearing in the major news reels during the next two weeks and many thousands of persons for the first time will understand just how B.C. apples are packed. The fact that they were used for a world's championship pack will add lustre to their already fine reputation.

Further good publicity will accrue from the fact that these championship packed apples will be sold by Safeway during the Christmas period. This company purchased the apples at a premium of $1.10 above the market price. Doubtless B.C. apples packed by world's champions will be featured in Safeway advertising and Safeway stores, all of which will further excellent publicity for Okanagan apples.

All in all the event was one of merit. The Federated Shippers had the initiative to sponsor the event and their organizational work brought credit to the industry and resulted in a very considerable amount of excellent publicity for the fruit industry and the Okanagan itself.

"If We Only Had . . ."

On Sunday evening a group of visitors from across the line were taken on a brief tour of the new curling rink and the arena. They saw curling for the first time and were extremely interested; they saw a couple of hundred persons skating at the arena and were impressed by the many uses to which the Memorial Arena is put here. One civic official from Wenatchee, as he watched the skaters, commented, "My, My! If we only had facilities like this in our town!"

The remark caused the editor of this newspaper to think a bit. It made him realize as never before that this town, Kelowna, is well equipped from a recreational point of view.

We in Canada are prone to assume that the towns south of the border have everything and, certainly, more and better things than do we north of the border. Actually there is no justification for this assumption, at least insofar as this city and most of the Okanagan cities are concerned.

A quick check shows that in winter sports Kelowna has hockey for all ages, fancy skating, curling, skiing, badminton, to say nothing of very excellent club facilities. In the summer every sport may be enjoyed with excellent facilities especially for all water sports, golf, lacrosse, tennis, softball and baseball.

Can anyone name any American town of a similar size which can offer its citizens a more complete list of sport facilities?

Apple Packing Contest Could Stay in Okanagan

There's a strong possibility that the Okanagan Valley will be the location for future international apple packing competitions.

"It's yours for the asking," declared Chester Klimm, secretary-manager of the Wenatchee Chamber of Commerce. For the past two years the championship has been held in Yakima, but it is understood the contest organizer has left the city, and no one else is willing to take on the responsibility.

Although Kelowna was the first Canadian city chosen for the third annual packing competition, it is likely that the honor would alternate between Penticton, Vernon and the Orchard City, providing Okanagan Valley packers want to assume the responsibility.

Monday's contest has brought, and will continue to bring considerable publicity to Kelowna and the apple growing country as a whole.

Ross Beasley, Associated Screen News, "shot" several hundred feet of the packing competition and the crowning ceremony held later in the Kelowna and District Memorial Arena. It will be shown in theatres throughout Canada and the United States within the next two weeks.

On Tuesday night, a commentary on the apple packing contest was heard over CBC news roundup. In addition, newspapermen covered the competition for British United Press and Canadian Press, while

PLAN PUBLIC SPEAKING COURSE

Commencing early in January, a ten-week public speaking course will get underway, open to the general public as well as members of the Kelowna Junior Chamber of Commerce.

This was made known at the monthly dinner-meeting of the Jaycees, held Monday evening in the upper dining room of Schell's Grill.

Hugh Earle is chairman while J. Gordon Stanton, a newcomer to Kelowna, will act as instructor. He will assist the Jaycees in organizing the program along the lines of the Vancouver Board of Trade public speaking course. A former Vancouver resident, Mr. Stanton has been appointed as representative of a nationally-known roofing firm. Kelowna will be the interior headquarters.

The course is well worth taking and anyone interested in improving their ability to speak in public will be welcomed. Contact Hugh Earle, president Roy Winsby, or any Jaycee.

JAYCEES BOOST VOTE TOTAL

Don Roberts was in charge of the recent get-out-the-vote drive sponsored by the Kelowna Junior Chamber of Commerce.

The Jaycees have done valuable work in this regard and were pleased to see a record turnout at the polls.

The matter was referred to Ald. Bob Knox for further investigation.

In a letter to council, Dr. Clarke said the company plans to pasteurize milk seven days a week, but that no deliveries would be made on the Sabbath. He was anxious to get council's opinion, as under the health bylaw, Saturday's milk could not be carried over for Monday's delivery.

Dr. Clarke thought that "during the winter months, public acceptance might be general, but in the summer, families without adequate refrigeration would find it difficult."

The matter was referred to Ald. Bob Knox for further investigation.

Apple Packer From Yakima Wins Title; Kaleden Woman 2nd

MRS. ROBERTA WILLIS, of Yakima, was crowned the 1951 World's Champion Apple Packer here Monday night. Before 2,000 enthusiastic fans who witnessed the hockey game between Kelowna Packers and Spokane Flyers, Mrs. Willis walked off with the top prize of $500, a huge silver trophy, and a large silver tea service tray. The 28-year-old housewife packed a total of 7,524 apples in two hours, and scored the top mark of 91.65 per cent over nine other contestants in the international apple packing competition held in Kelowna Monday afternoon.

But there was deafening applause when Mrs. Beth Garlinge, of Kaleden—one of the two Canadian entrants—was awarded second prize of $250 with a score of 90.20 per cent.

Although she won the Canadian title in the elimination finals held in Penticton last month, few spectators thought a Canadian would figure in the top standings as Okanagan packers have insisted employees concentrate on quality and not speed of pack.

In third place was Mrs. Laurie Melton, of Yakima, with a percentage of 89.85.

Only six points separated the top and tenth place contestants. Canada's other competitor, Mrs. W. Benoit, of Penticton, finished seventh with 87.27 marks.

Eight Below Recorded Last Night

King Winter clamped down with the first below-zero temperatures last night, shortly after spilling 10½ inches of snow on an unprepared Kelowna.

But last night's eight below (the official low, according to the instrument of R. P. Walrod, weather observer here) was not the coldest December reading on record.

Mr. Walrod found that twice before the mercury slipped to a low of 11 below. That was December 11, 1922, and December 30, 1927.

A fall of 8½ inches during the 24-hour period ending at 8:00 a.m. Tuesday posed clearing problems for everyone and seriously disrupted motor traffic. But again the 24-hour fall was far short of a record.

Mr. Walrod reported the heaviest fall of snow in a 24-hour period was on February 19, 1937, when 18½ inches tumbled down.

Snowfall so far this month is 17½ inches, still a long way from setting any record for the month of December. Several previous December months had lots more. For example: December, 1917, 34.25 inches; December, 1927, 27.25 inches; December, 1929, 20 inches; December, 1933, 25 inches.

The whole of Canada is in the grip of a cold wave, accompanied by heavy snow in most places, and high winds aggravated in others by high winds.

A promise of a little milder temperature is held out for this area by the weatherman. Light snow also is forecast.

Maximum, minimum and snowfall (in inches) for the past three days follow:

	31	23	8.25
Dec. 17	31	23	8.25
Dec. 18	32	1	2.25
Dec. 19	10	—	—

Motorists Are Warned Drive Carefully

If the Corporation of the City of Kelowna ends the year on the "red" side of the ledger, Mr. and Mrs. Average Citizen can blame it on Mother Nature.

Last week-end, there was every indication the city would end the fiscal year with a small surplus. Then the snow came—a total of 10½ inches in five days—and since Monday morning the city has been dishing out money at the rate of $155 a day for additional equipment and men to clear the streets.

By midnight tonight, every lane and roadway will have been plowed out. But motorists are advised to drive carefully over the Christmas season, as streets are hazardous.

RCMP this morning issued the familiar warning—"If you drive, don't drink; if you drink, don't drive."

The heavy snowfall was the subject of a lengthy debate at Tuesday afternoon's city council meeting.

High cost of hiring additional equipment for snow-clearing purposes was brought home to City Fathers in no uncertain terms. City Engineer George Meckling revealed it cost $9 an hour to hire a snowplow, while an overhead loader costs about the same amount.

Concerned over the possibility of the city running into the "red" Mayor W. B. Hughes-Games asked Mr. Meckling how far $600 would go.

"About 2½ days," the city engineer replied. Council agreed that despite the cost, the snow must be removed, and this afternoon a three-man committee was to decide if the additional equipment would be kept on the job.

The public works department is doing everything possible with the men and equipment available," declared Alderman R. F. L. Keller, chairman of the public works committee.

The heavy snowfall caught most B.C. cities totally unprepared—unprepared because normally it is not necessary to have a lot of snow-clearing equipment on hand.

Although maintenance of Bernard Avenue is the responsibility of the provincial government, city equipment with the assistance of the provincial public works department, moved the snow to the centre of the street. Council agreed that snow-clearing equipment should be concentrated on the business section of the city, and then move to residential areas. However, it is expected every lane and roadway will have been plowed out by midnight tonight.

Alderman Dick Parkinson predicted a short but heated argument when he asked "why the" (Turn to Page 6, Story 1)

Many Minor Accidents Reported

The heavy snow of the past week is blamed to a large extent for the flurry of minor auto collisions.

Since Friday, 15 of the reportable types have been brought to the attention of Royal Canadian Mounted Police here. It is estimated that a score of others, or more, where damage is less than $25 and no report to police is required, have occurred.

A common mishap is the one where a parked auto, temporarily stuck in the heavy snow near the curb, finally breaks out just in time to nick or get nicked by a passing auto.

Chains were dug out of the trunks or garages for the first time in most cases over the week-end. But roads (some of them almost impassable Tuesday) are now reported fairly well cleared, posing little difficulty to chain-equipped autos.

APPRECIATE PROBLEMS

Bicycles are almost conspicuous by their absence. An overwhelming majority of cyclists now are either walking or sharing rides with motorists.

The odd car also can be seen (under a foot of snow) left in front of houses or in yards until they are dug out.

Each householder had a good idea of the tremendous clearing task facing the city as he wielded shovel and broom on his own walks and driveway.

Hospital authorities here report there have been no injuries directly attributable to the snow and cold of the past few days. A couple of weeks ago at least two persons suffered wrist fractures in falls on icy surfaces.

CITY BORROWS $14,000 FOR SIDEWALKS

City Council Tuesday afternoon approved a resolution calling for borrowing $14,000 from the Bank of Montreal at 4½% interest, until debtures are issued under the local improvement bylaw.

The mayor pointed out that the money is for construction of sidewalks and curbs which have been approved by taxpayers in various sections of the city. When the bonds are issued, the $14,000 will be repaid.

MRS. PITTENDRIGH DIES SUDDENLY

Mrs. Bessie Emily Pittendrigh, 78-year-old mother of T. S. Pittendrigh and Mrs. Francis Cousins, both of Kelowna, died suddenly this morning at the home of the latter 438 Caddis. She came to Kelowna two years ago from Victoria to be with her two children here.

Funeral arrangements will be announced later by Day's Funeral Service, pending arrival of two other sons from Victoria.

MRS. BETH GARLINGE, of Kaleden, finished less than two points behind the winner to take second place in the 3rd annual International Apple Packing Competition held here last Monday. Mrs. Garlinge won the Canadian title in the elimination finals held last month. Mrs. W. Benoit, of Penticton, who is standing behind Mrs. Garlinge, finished in seventh place.

START OF THE TWO HOUR RACE. The above photograph was taken a few minutes after the start of last Monday's two hour race to determine the champion apple packer. Six of the contestants can be seen in the foreground, while the other four on the opposite side of the grader. The winner, Mrs. Roberta Willis, of Yakima, is third from the left. Canadian contestants figured well in the contest.

PROBE CHEMICALS IN CITY SEWERS

City Engineer George Meckling expressed the opinion that private individuals are putting inflammable chemicals into the city sewerage system.

Commenting on the investigation he has made during recent weeks, Mr. Meckling said he thinks private citizens are putting cleaning chemicals down the lavatories, as he has checked garages and dry cleaning establishments.

The investigation will continue.

COLD WEATHER STOPS SANTA'S APPEARANCE

Old Man Winter has even thrown a monkey wrench into plans for the appearance of Santa Claus in Kelowna.

Due to the cold weather, Kelowna Kinsmen Club has decided to cancel the annual appearance of St. Nick. He was to have been present in his Igloo on the corner of Water Street and Bernard Avenue Friday and Saturday.

However, Santa Claus will make his annual appearance at the Kelowna General Hospital on Saturday and will visit kiddies in the children's ward.

THE WINNER, Mrs. Roberta Willis, of Yakima, proudly shows the silver tray and cup to second and third place contestants, Mrs. Beth Garlinge, of Kaleden (centre) and Mrs. Laurie Melton, of Yakima, (right) who finished third. Incidentally those envelopes the women are holding contain $500, $250, and $100 respectively.

Council Opposes Civic Heads Joining Union

CITY Fathers are opposed to civic employees "holding positions of trust" becoming members of a union. This feeling was expressed in no uncertain terms Tuesday afternoon when city council received a letter from the labor relations board to the effect that the Kelowna City Hall Employees' Union, local 472, has applied to be certified as the bargaining authority for the employees of the office administration staff at the city hall.

Only employees not affected are the city controller, city clerk, city engineer, welfare officer, and electrical superintendent. Council was informed that the assistant city engineer and the assessor have joined the union.

Mayor Hughes-Games expressed the opinion that officials of city departments should not be members of a union, as they hold "posi-

Publication Dates

Due to the long Christmas holiday falling in the middle of the week, it has been necessary to make certain changes in the publication dates of The Kelowna Courier.

Next Monday's paper will be delivered early Monday morning, and therefore the deadline for last minute advertising has been advanced to 10 a.m. Saturday.

Due to Tuesday and Wednesday being a holiday, next Thursday's paper will be set back to Friday, December 28. There will be no paper on December 31, while the January 3 issue has been dropped back to Friday, January 4. The Courier will resume normal publication days commencing Monday, January 7.

Advertisers and correspondents are requested to please note these changes.

THREE-POINT HAT PLAN GETS THREE CALLERS INSIDE WEEK

Eaton's gave up only one hat for a hat-trick in nearly two months of senior hockey doings, but as soon as the plan was changed to a hat for three points—what! Three in a week! Winners of hats, which will probably be presented this coming Saturday at the Vernon at Kelowna game (starting time 8 p.m.), are: Mike Durbin (two goals and two assists, here Dec. 6); Jim Middleton (two goals, one assist, at Spokane Dec. 9); Phil Hergeheimer (three goals, at Trail Dec. 13).

In changing the plan a couple of weeks ago, George Reid of Eaton's reserved the right to make it a hat for four points, if the three-point plan starts too heavy a drain on funds set aside for this purpose.

Last year 18 hats, or merchandise of equal value, were given away by another donor for three-goal performances.

OLD PUCK-ICING RULE REVIVED BY GOVERNORS

All hockey leagues under the jurisdiction of the Canadian Amateur Hockey Association must return to the "icing-the-puck" rule within a reasonable time," George S. Dudley, secretary-manager of the CAHA, announced last week.

The old rule, which allows the puck to be fired into the end zone from just across the center line, was returned to the rule book by a vote of the CAHA executive. The new rule in effect this year for the first time and which has now been abolished, called for the puck to be carried over the blue line without reaching the goal line.

"Teams will have to return to the old rule as quickly as possible," said Dudley.

NOTHING OFFICIAL

No official word has been received here from league headquarters about when the old rule will come into effect again.

Though at least one league game has been played according to last year's rule, games in Kelowna so far have not been affected. Return to the old rule will mean a lot more fighting for the puck in the corners, with attackers shooting the puck aimlessly into the opponents' end once they've crossed the red line.

GOALIE COLLECTS ASSIST IN GAME AGAINST PACKERS

Johnny Sofiak may be the only goalkeeper in hockey this season to appear in the scoring column.

The 23-year-old Trail netminder's skill at caroming clearances off the boards to waiting forwards paid off last week against Kelowna Packers when one of his passes resulted in a goal. His name went into the records with an assist alongside.

Kelowna won the game 4-3 but Sofiak won his point.

V's Hold Tight To Defeat Royals 6-5 In Exhibition Tilt

In an exhibition game that was nearly cancelled owing to lack of BCHA sanction on the part of the Penticton V's, the OSAHL club squeezed out a 6-5 victory over the professional New Westminster Royals at Penticton Tuesday.

V's flashed to an early lead and never relinquished it though they had to call on every defensive strategy they could to hold on in the third period. Doug Kilburn paced the winners with two goals.

STARTING TIME 9 FOR CANUCKS

Vernon Canadians, currently being given a battle by the Packers for second place in the OSAHL race, will make their first appearance in nearly two months here Saturday. Three of the Vernon players will be absolutely new to most Kelowna patrons.

Game time 9:00 p.m., set back to accommodate late Saturday shoppers and store personnel. Packers will have no changes, though they'll be well rested for the important fixture.

Kelowna plays in Penticton Wednesday (Boxing Day) and then hosts Kamloops Elks here Thursday.

In other league action this week, Spokane completes its season against the Penticton Canucks; the V's will be in Kamloops Saturday. Kamloops also has a Boxing Day game, with Vernon the opposition.

Tenpin Score of 264

One of the finest 10-pin scores turned in in years here was chalked up this week by Bill O'Flaherty. A spare in the second and on the last ball marred an otherwise perfect strike record, giving him a 264 score.

WOMEN CURLERS AT PEACHLAND PLAN BONSPIEL

PEACHLAND—Shirley Mae Gerie skipped her rink to top place in the pre-Christmas practice schedule of the Junior League Curling Club, with the rinks of Garry Topham and Sheridan Mohler tying for second place. A new schedule has now been drawn up to play for the League Cup, with a new draw of skis and players.

In the Women's Curling Club, the first schedule finished last Monday. An additional two teams have been added for the second schedule when the play is for the cup. The ladies' tour to hold their bonspiel in February. All signs point to a good winter's enjoyment at the curling rink for the sports-minded Peachlanders.

At the recent opening of the Kelowna Ladies Curling Club Mrs. N. Watt, Mrs. N. Evans, Mrs. Saunders, of Westbank, and Mrs. J. Long comprised a rink to represent the Peachland Club. They report having a good game and a most enjoyable afternoon.

Smokies Have Firm Grip on Scoring Lead

Six Trail Smoke Eaters, led by Frank Turk, are ganged atop the Western International Hockey League's scoring race, according to statistics released last week.

Turk has 32 points; John Rypley 28, Bob Weist and Mike Shabaga 25, Bill Ramon 24, Hugh Scott of Spokane is next with 23.

(Figures are worked out on a percentage basis, like the league standings, since teams do not play the same number of games during the schedule).

BROWNIE PACK AT GLENMORE GIVEN PARTY

GLENMORE—A very enjoyable time was held in the school on Thursday of last week, when the 1st Glenmore Brownie Pack was given a Christmas party. Only one of the sixteen members was absent, and she, Michelo Hatanaka was some through illness. There was a Christmas tree, games, and lots of cake, including fruit and candy, and instead of Christmas Crackers, each child received a trinket of some sort, wrapped in snowballs, made of fleecy white cotton. The leaders Mrs. William Short and Mrs. George Watson, appreciate very much the generosity and kindness of the mothers of the Brownies, and the teen-agers who supplied the refreshments and trinkets, and others who donated fruits, nuts and candy to make the first Christmas party a success.

Sum of $35 was won last week by Mrs. A. E. Graves in the "Help Your Neighbor" contest over CKOV.

The cold snap of last week brought with it the usual amount of sickness, colds and flu.

Minor Hockey Round-up

(Owing to the ice carnival staged the night before, there was no bantam session Saturday. Four games are scheduled for this Saturday, starting at 8:00 a.m.)

JUVENILE LEAGUE

Sunday
Notre Dames 4, Thunderbirds 2
Catching up in the second and then ramming in four unanswered goals in the third, the Notre Dames blasted Thunderbirds 7-2. Bob Folk spearheaded the uphill drive with a nice four-goal effort. Al Schaefer was next in line with one goal and two assists.

Thunderbirds grabbed a 2-1 first period lead but then on Koke Koyanagi hung up the shutout shingle. Folk's second goal and Ed Coelen's tally in the second gave the ND's a 3-2 lead and they just kept right on going. J. Wishlove accounted for the winners' other marker. C. Schaefer scored the Birds' first goal and set J. Naka up for the other.

Tuesday

Notre Dames 4, Legion Pats 3
Bob Folk and F. Selzer paced the Notre Dames to their second win of the week, a 5-3 verdict over the Legion Pats. Folk and Selzer both scored twice, with Roy Wakabayashi getting the other.

Tom Bebb sparked the losing cause with a couple, C. Klingbell completing the Pats' scoring. Rapid-fire scoring saw the Notre Dames score three goals in two minutes in the first period for a 3-0 lead, but the Pats replied in even quicker fashion to notch a trio in one minute, only to lose the game on Selzer's second period goal—his first of the night—that proved to be the winner. Selzer's goal in the third put the win away on ice.

MIDGET LEAGUE

Tuesday

Cubs 5, Grizzlies 2
A hat-trick by Charlie Wakabayashi gave the Cubs a 5-2 victory over the Legion Grizzlies, with six of the seven goals coming in a torrid third period. Cubs nursed a 1-0 first period lead through a scoreless second to break out with four goals to the Grizzlies two in the finale. G. Saunders and L. Gauley drew singles for the Cubs, while J. Angle and G. Ferguson tallied for the losers.

Tigers 7, Lions 5

Two four-goal performances highlighted a hard-fought struggle between Tigers and Lions before the Tigers won out 7-5. Wayne Hicks tipped in four for the winners, while Jack Gourlie duplicated for the Lions.

E. Knorr added a brace for the winners with Bill Nikon accounting for the other goal. G. Fry squeezed in a goal between two doubles by Gourlie, giving the Lions a 3-2 second stanza edge which they held until Wayne Hicks went hat-tricking in the third.

GENTLEMEN—may I call your attention to some good advice for the last-minute Santa? If you still haven't chosen "Her" gift—read on.

For the girl who walks the dog, criticizes your haircut, wrestles with your collar button, and in general makes life wonderful... I've rounded up some Christmas "bell ringers." There are still lots of glamorous gifts in the shops... frivolous and romantic gifts to light her eyes this Christmas.

When doing "research" for a perfume Ad (just an excuse to spray myself with the precious stuff) I remembered some lines from an old poem.

"Blame not the mistletoe of old,
This her sweet scent that makes him bold."
That may give some of you belated Santa's a good idea! For other Yule suggestions... see below.

S-H-H-H... It's your's and Santa's secret... but chances are at Melkie's they even know "her" size and color preference! So don't hesitate to choose something lovely for her to wear.

Yes, you'll find Christmas shopping pleasant and easy at Melkie's... with a whole department store packed with gift ideas—and a staff of experienced salespeople to give you friendly assistance. Here are just a few suggestions: a glamorous bed-jacket, slippers... light and airy nylon pajamas... a lacey half-slip, quality gloves... a packable umbrella... a warm housecoat. Or perhaps she's dreaming of a white Christmas blouse. You'll find that and many more "sure-fire" gifts at Melkie's.

P.S.—Your package will be beautifully gift-wrapped for you! Just ready to slip under the tree.

Perfume from McGILL and WILLIS will send her Christmas spirits soaring. Here you'll find some of the most universally acclaimed fragrances ever created in France. Just glance through these famous names! There's "Shall-mar" by Guerlain of Paris... "Bellodgia" and "Black Narcissus" both by Caron... "Quelques Fleurs" by Houbigant... and all four Faberge perfumes. Most wanted perfume of all is the renowned "Chanel No. 5." Then there are four fragrances by Lucien Lelonde... and the celebrated Dana scents—Tabu, Voodoo and 20 Carats.

A McGill and Willis Ltd. fine perfumes are rarely displayed—and then just for brief periods. The reason? Mr. McGill tells me that prolonged exposure to light will damage good perfumes. That's why imported perfumes are usually kept in storage—and are shown by request.

Christmas Coat for a lovely lady. Fabulous gifts are arriving daily at the Eleanor Mack Shop. Something for every woman on your list! For the teen-ager—perhaps a jaunty plaid handbag from the large collection of purses. For the young matron or older woman there's a really choice selection—including dainty nylon blouses and lovely scarves.

Shoppers from Penticton and Kamloops are buying maternity fashions at the Eleanor Mack Shop. And it's no wonder that this smart little specialty shop is becoming known throughout the valley... for the styles and values are terrific. One best-seller has been a line of smart two-piece suits with the top in iridescent taffetas, the skirt in crepe, just 14.95!

Christmas is gay and cheery when the stockings are filled and you know that you've chosen just the "right" gift for every person on your list. But perhaps there's one gift that still has you baffled? Then here's a tip from Okanagan Stationers... a fine quality leather billfold or wallet will be welcomed by any man or woman on your gift list.

Did you know that you can tell good quality leather by its SOUND? Yes, it's absolutely true. Run the leather through your fingers and just listen! If it squeaks, you know it's good genuine leather. Every wallet and billfold at Okanagan Stationers Ltd. is carefully crafted from top quality English leathers. They're imported directly from England—which accounts for the very moderate price tags. Black, brown, red or blond men. Good variety of designs in Morocco or smooth leathers. 3.85 to 7.75.

The canny Santa can get valuable plus for his dollar at Shirreff's, Kelowna's $6 to $10.00 Store. Especially right now when several Christmas items are marked down for complete clearance. You'll find paper table cloths with gay Christmas designs for just 35¢. Then there are the ever-popular party crackers (the kind that go bang!) at a special low price, 79¢ a dozen.

Outstanding values in candy, too! Hard candies sell at 39¢ a pound and up while there's a good selection of chocolates at 79¢ a pound. And other handy items at Christmas time—tumblers and glasses of all kinds. There's a whole section of them in smart modern designs, each 10¢. And for that last-minute gift... there's a best-selling line of nylon hose, "Lady Beth" at 1.39 and 1.59... found only at Shirreff's, Kelowna's $6 to $10.00 Store.

Let's Talk Turkey! The time has come to order that elegant fowl that will grace your Christmas table this December 25th! Grade A lightweight turkeys sell at 73¢ a pound at Super-Valu, while large twenty-five pound turkeys sell at 63¢ a pound. Here's a good idea for the small family! You can order half a large turkey—save 10¢ a pound—and have better turkey with more pleasing meat. Several magazines have recently featured recipes for stuffing and roasting a half turkey. At Super-Valu, too, you'll find goose at 61¢ a pound, duck at 61¢ and chicken at 63¢.

Other traditional holiday fare—boned felled ham, cottage rolls and picnic shoulders. Ask about Swift's fully cooked hams—ready to slice cold or to heat in just a few minutes. Then there are the party-time favorites... garlic sausage, salami, Polish sausage, summer sausage, liverwurst. You'll find them all at Super-Valu.

To Paw from Maw! This year—give him something terrific from Harry Mitchell's. Pop old Paw is often low man on the totem pole when it comes to getting gifts. So this Christmas, pamper him with a gift from this smart Men's Wear Shop. Top favorite with most men is a good quality white shirt—(no man has too many!)—and here you will find a wide selection. In cotton broadcloth or nylon, at prices ranging from .85 to .95. Other good gift items are sweaters, pajamas, scarves—or something from their top line-up of bar supplies!

P.S.—He'll say you're an angel if you give him a gift certificate from Harry Mitchell's.

Assortment Of Goodies Are "Must" Over Yule Season

Goodies for holiday feasts and treats are an important part of Christmas. Here are some tasty recipes for that last minute round of preparation. It's a good idea to have a good variety, and lots of 'em for grown-ups and children alike who will be dropping in from now on until the last "Happy New Year" has echoed away in January.

CHRISTMAS CUT-OUT COOKIES ST. NICK COOKIES

Christmas wouldn't be Christmas without the traditional sugar cookies that are cut into fascinating shapes to delight the small children. Variety in decoration gives many different cookies out of one batch of dough.

1/2 cup shortening
1/2 cup butter
1 cup granulated sugar
2 eggs, well beaten
1 teaspoon vanilla
Dash nutmeg

2 1/2 cups all purpose flour
1 teaspoon baking powder
1 teaspoon salt
Cream shortening and butter until soft. Add sugar gradually, creaming well. Add beaten eggs, vanilla and nutmeg. Mix and stir together flour, baking powder and salt. Add to creamed mixture and blend well. Chill thoroughly.

Place dough on lightly floured board and roll one-eighth inch thick. Cut with floured cookie cutter into Christmas shapes. Sprinkle with sugar or bake and frost and decorate as desired. Bake at 350 degrees for eight to 10 minutes.

CHRISTMAS COOKIES

This is another recipe for Christmas cut-out cookies. These are dark cookies with molasses and spices that are a favorite with the children.

1/3 cup soft shortening
1/3 cup brown sugar
1 egg
2/3 cups molasses
2 1/2 cups sifted flour
1 teaspoon soda
1 teaspoon salt
2 teaspoons cinnamon
1 teaspoon ginger

Cream sugar with shortening and beat in eggs. Mix together well. Sift together and stir in dry ingredients. Chill dough well. Roll out quarter-inch thick. Cut into desired shapes. Place one inch apart on lightly greased baking sheet. Bake at 375 degrees for eight to 10 minutes or until when touched lightly no imprint remains. Makes five dozen two and one-half cookies. Ice and decorate when cool.

For light dough—Follow recipe above but substitute honey for molasses, white sugar for brown and vanilla for spices.

COCONUT-RAISIN SPICE BARS

These are delicious cookies that can be made at any time of the year but are extra-special for Christmas.

1 1/2 cups all purpose flour
2 teaspoons baking powder
1/2 teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon cinnamon
1/2 teaspoon nutmeg
1/2 cup soft shortening
1 cup granulated sugar
2 eggs, well beaten
1 cup light molasses
1 cup chopped nuts
1 cup seeded raisins
1/2 cup shredded coconut

Cream and lightly flour a 9-12 in. cake pan. Sift together flour, baking powder, salt and spices. Cream shortening and butter until fluffy. Gradually add sugar, mixing until creamy. Add beaten eggs. Beat well and add molasses, nuts, raisins and coconut. Stir in dry ingredients and milk, combining thoroughly. Spread in prepared pan. Bake at 350 degrees for 20 to 25 minutes. Let cool in pan and cut into squares or bars. If desired, top may be dusted with icing sugar or spread with thin butter icing and sprinkled with coconut.

PENTICTON BUYS A NEW FLAG!

PENTICTON—Penticton's finances may become straitened at times, but they're surely never so bad as to justify the tattered flag flying over the city hall. This, in effect, was the submission made by the council's finance committee chairman, Alderman E. A. Titchmarsh, at last week's council meeting.
Council as a whole agreed with him. Endorsement was given the idea of buying a new flag.

New Wage Boosts For Kamloops Electricians

KAMLOOPS—Local Union 993 of the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers has completed an agreement with four electrical contractors in Kamloops.

The contractors involved—Ferne-
Bros. Ltd., C. L. Wain & Son, H.
Ciddens Ltd. and North Kamloops
Electric Ltd.—have agreed to wage increases varying from 17 to 27 per cent to establish a rate of $1.77 an hour for electricians. Other highlights of the agreement are provisions for a 40-hour week, closed shop. The overtime provisions grant double time for all overtime on construction work and time and a half for overtime on service calls with a minimum of one hour for each call.

The agreement is retroactive to November 1 and the wage schedule in the agreement is subject to revision on April 1, 1952.

This is the first agreement which has been completed covering electrical workers here.

SEASONAL WORK

MONTREAL—McGill students who have become proficient at ice and snow skating through annual winter carnivals were paid by a downtown commercial concern to build a huge Santa Claus in snow.
It's one of many odd jobs providing Christmas money for students.

Promises Made to Furnish All Wards In New Wing of Kelowna Hospital

Promises of furnishings for all wards in the new wing of the Kelowna General Hospital have now been assured, according to C.
R. Bull, director of the Kelowna
General Hospital Society.

The local branch of the Junior Red Cross has agreed to furnish the last ward. In addition to receiving promises for equipping rooms, the hospital has also received donations; some for specific items and others as straight donations to be spent at the discretion of the board.

The Kelowna Kinsmen Club has agreed to look after the children's department, Mr. Bull said, adding that the service club is prepared to spend up to $2,000 for this project.

Donors making donations other than ward furnishings are:

First Mennonite Church; women's auxiliary; Vancouver Engineering Works Ltd.; H. H. MacLeay; Robert Simpson (Pacific) Ltd.; J.
F. Furmerton, Austin C. Taylor;
West Kelowna Power and Light Company; O. L. Jones Furniture Company; Rowcliffe Canning Co.
Ltd.; McGavin Bakery; Peachland
Women's Institute and an anonymous donor.

Public Relations Program Will Be Launched In U.S. To Boost Sale of Apples

WENATCHEE—International Apple Association Director

Hal W. Johnston announced here details of an apple industry "improvement program."

In reality, the program is a much needed public relations effort by the industry, the Rochester, N.Y., man said. He revealed its component parts to the Wenatchee Valley Traffic association.

Johnston indicated the "improvement" program will deal with problems both within and outside the apple industry. His address was the first of a series in a swing around the nation's apple producing areas.

One development of the IAA effort is publication of "The Apple Booklet," a full-color lithographed book which will explain apples and their uses, completely.

Johnston, who is executive vice-president and director of sales of the Stecher-Traug Lithograph corporation, showed slides of the first
"rushes" of the booklet.

It will be published in time for next year's IAA convention and then be made available to food editors, home economists and others interested in the apple industry.

RAISE MONEY
The IAA vice-president said 10-000 leather-bound copies of the book will be sold for $2 each, in order to raise money to cover the publication cost of these books and 15,000 other paper-back copies of the first edition.

"With the $20,000 raised from the sale of the bound volumes, the project will pay for itself and enable us to distribute the other 15,000 copies free of charge," he explained.

"They will describe 16 different varieties of apples in full color. Six chapters of 16 pages each will be devoted to these titles:

1. The Romance of the Apple Industry. 2. The Apple Industry in North America. 3. How an Apple is Produced. 4. Apple Vareties. 5. Uses of Apples. and 6.

Nutritive Values of Apples."

Editor of the book will be Miss Dorothy Skinner, publicity consultant of the New York Fruit Auction company, a widely recognized authority in the field, Johnston said.

The IAA official said he liked the term "industry improvement program" that has been adopted for the public relations job.

Now developed is a five-point program, he said, which means to:

1. Insure a better and more uniform product at the retail point of sale.

2. Development of better inter-industry relationships.

3. Improvement of the industry's distributive system.

4. Continuing essential research.

5. Organizing and co-ordinating industry publicity efforts.

BRUISED APPLES
In explaining the need for an industry improvement program,
Johnston said:

"Too large a percentage of fresh apples reach the consumer poorly graded, bruised, or in poor condition."

"Fresh apples at retail point-of-sale lack day-after-day uniformity in quality, condition, size and price."

"The normal supply of apples also is in excess of the demand at profitable prices. The present industry program is not efficient enough, and not enough is known by the industry about its product."

"The industry, in addition, lacks data on consumer purchasing habits and wants—and has not completely adopted the efficient sales philosophy: 'Give the consumer what the consumer wants.'"

Johnston pointed out that there is "unnecessary and unreasonable mistrust in all segments of the apple industry."

He said the industry improvement program is aimed at rectifying as far as possible all these problems. Members of the traffic association received the details of the apple booklet enthusiastically.

Those at the meeting immediately subscribed for the $2 bound volumes—some for as many as 25 to 50 copies to be sent to their firms.

Stanley Dwinell of Oroville gave a strong endorsement of the program. He has been working closely with Johnston and the IAA on its development.

"General ignorance about apples is stupendous," he told the meeting.
"We, here close to the industry, do not realize how little is known by the public about our product."

He said the industry has received a great amount of technical assistance from Johnston in the preparation of "The Apple Booklet" which will enable it to be produced at a minimum of expense.

Johnston's firm, Stecher-Traug supplies many of the box labels used in the apple deal, "and as such has a stake in the industry," the sales and merchandising man explained in his presentation.

OTHER INDUSTRIES BENEFIT
The IAA official said many industries have benefited greatly by public relations programs. He pointed out that the bowling industry has "risen from the basement" with one million participants to a respected position in the public eye with more than 2.5 million people participating in the sport.

"A public relations program has boosted that previously lowly-regarded item, canned sauerkraut, from 45th to 5th in the nation's most-used canned vegetables," he added.

Johnston was introduced to the Traffic association by Sim Smith of Cashmere, also a director of the international apple group.

Smith said the speaker was among a group of 15 American businessmen who recently went to England to advise British manufacturers on methods of merchandising their products in this country.

ELKS LODGE AIDS
NEEDY FAMILIES

At their last regular meeting of this year on Monday, the B.O.
Elks Lodge made plans to sponsor some Christmas hampers again this year for local needy families. So far, 20 families are in need of help.
The hampers will be delivered to these families by members of the Lodge.

STAMP CLUB
MEETS JAN. 9

One club with no fees or dues to pay is meeting new members.
The next meeting of the Kelowna
Stamp Club will be Wednesday,
January 9, at 7:30 p.m. in the B.C.
Tree Fruits board room. Visitors are also welcome to attend these meetings. Interesting programs are always well-planned by an enthusiastic executive.

Combined Choir of 30 Voices Present Sacred Cantata To Congregation

WINFIELD—The presentation of Charles Gabriel's sacred cantata "Bethlehem" at the United Church on Sunday, December 16, by the combined choirs of Rutland and Winfield, was in the nature of an experiment.

The Rutland choir was coached by Mrs. R. C. S. Crysdale and the Winfield choir by S. C. Jones and for the last few rehearsals the two choirs were brought together for co-ordination.

The result was a complete success and the two presentations by the 30 voices on Dec. 16 at Rutland at 11:00 a.m. and Winfield at 3:00 p.m. were greatly enjoyed by large congregations.

The choruses were well rendered, the solo work very good and the organ accompaniment by Kermit Eutin was excellent. The order of service was as follows:

Hymn "All hail, the power of Jesus' Name"; "In the Beginning," chorus; "Let there be light," chor-us; "The Creation of man," tenor, S. C. Jones; duet, Mrs. L. Stowe and Mrs. C. Christian; "Eden," soprano, Mrs. A. Larson; scripture reading, Rev. R. C. S. Crysdale; "A Saviour, Christ the Lord," chorus; soprano, Mrs. A. Larson; "When Jesus Was Born," chorus; "In Bethlehem," chorus; "God's Love," duet, Mrs. L. Stowe and Mrs. C. Christian; "Where Is He?" bass, H. S. Reed; "Ring the Bells," chorus; scripture reading.

Hymn "As with gladness, men of old"; "Immortal Love," duet, Mrs. L. Stowe and Mr. S. C. Jones; chor-us; "Arie, Shimeh" chorus; "The Lord's My Shepherd" solo, Mrs. A. Larson, obligato, Mrs. R. C. S. Crysdale, chorus; "Why Art Thou Cast Down?" bass, H. S. Reed, chorus; "The Great Light," chorus; "Unto Us a Child Is Born" chorus.

Hymn "Hark, the Herald Angels Sing," Benediction.

Past Legion Presidents At Peachland Honored

PEACHLAND—Past presidents of the Canadian Legion, Branch 69, were honored at a recent meeting, when Zone Commander G. Kincaid, of Penticton, presented them with past president medals in recognition of their services for their services for their branch. Those so honored were: C. Whinton, D. Miller, G. Sanderson, and H. McNeil.

President L. Weston welcomed the Zone Commander, who addressed the meeting on various Legion matters.

During the business part of the meeting, plans were made to hold a smoker on December 21, and also to again hold a New Year's dance in the Athletic Hall. G. Eddy was left in charge of arranging for an orchestra.

The annual Christmas party was held December 17 with 90 children present. The children had a wonderful time and there were presents for all. The ladies of the Women's Auxiliary helped serve refreshments.

EAST KELOWNA YULE CONCERT

EAST KELOWNA—The executive of the Parent-Teacher's Association held a meeting in the school when final arrangements were made for the school concert and Christmas party, which took place today in the Community Hall.

A report on membership was given by Mrs. E. O. Middleton. Charles Ross offered to get the Christmas tree.

ELECTRIC BILL AVERAGES $12 AT PENTICTON

PENTICTON—The financial routine adopted by the city, in dealing with applications for special electrical service and connections, was outlined by the city clerk, H. G. Andrew, at last week's council meeting.

If an applicant wants a certain connection, he explained, the first things that are done involve the estimates. One is the cost of the installing service, and the second is the presumed extra revenue that will accrue to the city.

Half the revenue to be gained, it is estimated, is profit. The city then computes the return it will secure in two years' time, a period that should not involve maintenance or further charges.

But if installing costs come to say $250, the city's attitude is that it is not sound for it to put up that full sum. In that case, the user is required to put up the full amount to begin with. But he gets his money back, eventually. One half of his bill is remitted to him, as he incurs it, until the full sum is paid up, or until five years, the maximum period, has elapsed.

"The theory," said Mr. Andrew, "is that this is all new revenue, and we would not have that revenue, if we did not make the installation."

He made his explanation as council was considering an application from M. Rippl, for special house heating installation. This application was agreed to.

American have a per capita coffee consumption of 18 pounds a year.

Calendar of Events

This column is published by the Courier, as a service to the community in an effort to eliminate overlapping of meeting dates.

It is planned to keep a record of two months ahead, but this cannot be done without the full co-operation of individuals or organizations.

Representatives of various groups are therefore requested to notify The Courier as soon as possible after a meeting date has been set, so that an accurate and up-to-date list
may be kept at all times.

1 SNOW
REMOVAL

snowclearing equipment was not out by 4:00 a.m. Monday. He thought the public works department left it too late, and that much of the snow could have been cleared before automobile traffic hindered operations.

ONE OPERATOR
City Engineer Meckling explained that the operator of the city snowplow, Bill Lesmeister, started working at 7:00 a.m. and did not finish until 11:00 p.m. that night.
Mr. Meckling said Mr. Lesmeister was solely in charge of the huge snowplow-grader, although later in the discussion, admitted that the foreman and sub-foreman of the DPW could operate the machine.

"If this man is the only one who can operate the machine, then I think we should get a second operator," declared Mr. Parkinson.
"What happens when he gets sick?"

Mr. Parkinson said he had received several complaints over the way the snowclearing was handled, although he did not wish to criticize those in charge. "We knew there was going to be a traffic tie-up Tuesday morning. It would have been a lot easier to clear the snow away from the curbs when there were few cars parked," Mr.
Parkinson added.

The city engineer explained that the rented snowplow (from S. M.

Simpson Co.) was not equipped with lights for night operation. He added that it was easier to remove the snow during daylight hours rather than in darkness.

GO THE LIMIT

At the present time, Mr. Meckling said there are two front-end loaders working, six trucks, three graders, as well as a "quick-way" shovel and a bulldozer.

Alderman Keller, in giving a resume of operations, told council that snowclearing was a costly business, adding that his department has little or no money left. He asked council how far it was prepared to go insofar as expenses are concerned.

It was finally decided to use all the equipment available for the next two days, at which time a special committee would review the situation.

2 APPLE
PACKER

points were awarded for quality of pack, and the balance for speed.
Miss McArthur actually packed 8-395 apples in two hours, which works out to 69 a minute, or 1.15 a second. Contest officials were amazed at her speed.

Following are the number of apples packed by each contestant:
Mrs. Willis, 7,524; Mrs. Garlinge,
7,561; Mrs. Melton, 7,883; Mrs. Adkins, 6,541; Miss McArthur, 8,395;
Mrs. Brumbaugh, 7,524; Mrs. Benoit,
6,011; Mrs. Forrest, 7,232; Mrs. Kinsch, 7,057; Mrs. Mathewitz, 7,810.

The extra fast winesaps were supplied by Great Ranch Ltd., of Peachland, Canada Safeway Ltd., tendered the highest bid for the 800 boxes of fruit, and the carload left Kelowna Monday night and was on sale in Vancouver Safeway stores Wednesday and Thursday.

245 BOXES A DAY
Mrs. Willis is practically a "novice" in the apple packing business.
She has been employed by the "Big Y" packinghouse in Yakima for only six years. Majority of contestants have been packing up to 25 and 30 years. Married 11 years, she has a girl of nine. In 1948 she finished second in the inter-state competition. She has packed as many as 245 boxes of apples in an eight-hour shift.

Mrs. Garlinge first started packing 24 years ago, but took time out to raise a family. She has been packing steadily for 15 years, and is employed by the Kaleden Co-op at Kaleden. She has two boys, 18 and 13 years of age.

Third place winner, Mrs. Melton, who has been packing for 21 years, celebrates her 25th wedding anniversary next August.

"I'm so thrilled, I don't know what to say," exclaimed Mrs. Willis when the result was announced.
The apple packing champ was crowned before close to 2,000 people in the Memorial Arena who witnessed the Kelowna Packer-Spokeane Flyer hockey game. Mrs. Willis also gave a demonstration in packing during the second period interval. Earlier in the evening, the Kelowna Board of Trade was hosts at a dinner for contestants and officials.

CHRISTMAS CAROLS
City Council Tuesday afternoon approved a request from CKOV to broadcast Christmas carols during p.a. system.

Take Tree Fruit Census This Winter

A new census of fruit trees will be undertaken this winter throughout the Okanagan by the provincial department of agriculture.

Although the count is usually taken every five years, horticulture experts want to ascertain how many trees were killed by frost last spring. The last survey was made in 1930.

At the request of the B.C. Fruit Growers Association executive, the current survey will be more detailed than those of the past. Counting will begin in a few days.

Information is required as to the kind and variety of fruit trees; how many and what kind of fruit trees growers intend to remove within the next 12 months; how many and what kind of trees growers intend to remove within the next three years, not including the above; what varieties of trees growers intend to plant within the next three years.

Information will be treated in strictest confidence and will not be available for taxation purposes. Only the district total will be announced.

District horticulturists will call at orchards to gather the information.

APPLE PACKING ARRANGEMENTS SATISFACTORY

Contestants and visitors from across the line lauded L. R. Stephens, secretary of the Okanagan Federated Shippers Association, for his outstanding organizational ability in making arrangements for the 3rd Annual International Apple Packing Competition.

Members of the committee who assisted Mr. Stephens were Bill Spear, Dick Parkinson, and George Clarke. The committee also obtained assistance from A. K. Loyd, president and general manager, B. C. Tree Fruits, and other officials of the growers' selling agency.

All the contestants unanimously agreed that packing conditions in the Kelowna Growers' Exchange Packinghouse compared favorably, if not better, than previous contests held in the United States.

There was one exception, and it is understood the suggestion is already being considered. Mrs. Beth Garlinge, of Kaleden, who finished in second place, thought that two hours of steady packing with only brief rest periods, was too much for the girls. She thought the contest should be spread over two days. However, none of the other contestants complained over the steady grind, although they all admitted they were "pretty tired" by the end of the day.

This is how the ten contestants finished in the 3rd Annual World Championship Apple Packing Contest held in Kelowna last Monday.

Representatives of Canada Safeway Ltd., Tom Millburn, Aubrey Roberts and C. Knight, were pleased with the detail arrangements made to have the apples shipped to the Vancouver market immediately after the competition. Safeway submitted the highest bid for the 800 boxes of Extra Fancy Winesaps. The carload left here Monday night and apples were on sale in Vancouver stores on Wednesday and Thursday.

1952 Lady-of-the-Lake Faye Weeks welcomed guests, while brief addresses were also given by Mayor W. B. Hughes-Games; A. K. Loyd, president and general manager, B. C. Tree Fruits; C. G. Beeson, president Kelowna Board of Trade; Arthur Garrish, BCFGA, president; Paul Lancaster, Yakima, president International Apple Packing Contest Inc.; T. Millburn, Canada Safeway, and several others.

Visitors paid tribute to L. R. Stephens for organizing the show, and for arranging everything to the minute detail.

"YOUR ATTENTION PLEASE," L. R. Stephens, secretary of the Okanagan Federated Shippers' Association, could be saying. Mr. Stephens was largely responsible for the successful running of the championship apple packing contest held here last Monday.

NEW POSTAGE STAMP DESIGNS ARE APPROVED

Hon. G. Edouard Rinfret, postmaster general, today announced the details of postage stamp designs that have been purchased by the department as a result of an invitation to Canadian artists to submit designs for review by a selection committee.

In November, 1950, artists were invited to submit designs on any one aspect of the five general subjects, secondary industries and products of Canada, well-known wild flowers of Canada, the larger animals of Canada, portraits of Canadian Indians and Eskimoes or designs based on symbols of native life, and outdoor scenes and activities.

The designs selected by the selection committee, composed of the Rt. Hon. Vincent Massey, P.C., C.H., chairman of the committee, and of

How They Finished

Professors Charles F. Comfort, R. C.A., and Arthur Gladu, have now been completed and are ready for reproduction as postage stamps. It is expected that the two designs selected will be released as postage stamps in the next year.

One design will appear on a 20c postage stamp and is intended to represent the wealth of "Forestry Products" that are manufactured from Canada's great timber resources. The main element of the design is composed of a broad strip of wood which, at the extreme left, is cut to form a simple coniferous tree shape and at the extreme right, is bleached and curved into a curl of paper. Incorporated in the center of this main element, is the simplified form of the type of mill which produces newsprint. The designer of this stamp is A. L. Pollock, a 33-year-old artist of Toronto. Mr. Pollock is a licentiate of the Society of Industrial Artists in Britain.

The other design was created by the prominent Toronto sculptor, Emanuel Hahn, R.C.A., S.S.C. This design displays the single motive, the head of a Bighorn or Rocky Mountain Sheep. This design will be issued as a 4c postage stamp and will be one of a series that will display other well-known large animals of Canada.

THIS HUGE TRAILER, one of the largest to come through the customs port at Osoyoos, is now making regular trips between Kelowna and California, bringing Okanagan residents "market fresh" fruits and vegetables.

The shipment was arranged by the produce division of the Kelly Douglas Co. The trailer made its initial visit to Kelowna last Saturday arriving here 72 hours after loading was started at Los Angeles.

The inaugural load contained mixed produce, consisting of oranges, lemons, grapes, waxed sweet potatoes, cucumbers, cauliflower, celery, green peppers, fresh California dates, fresh green onions and radishes.

This will be a regular service provided by Kelly Douglas, thus assuring Okanagan residents a steady supply of fresh fruits and vegetables.

Mrs. A. W. Gray, Rutland W.I. Member For 33 Years Awarded Life Membership

RUTLAND—The Rutland Women's Institute members were hosts to their husbands at a turkey supper in the Community Hall on Thursday evening, Dec. 13, about 45 persons sitting down to a very fine meal prepared by the ladies.

The occasion was the annual meeting of the Institute, and in addition to the election of officers there was a special ceremony at which Mrs. A. W. Gray was presented with a life membership, in recognition of 33 years membership in, and service to the local Women's Institute.

Mrs. Gray was presented with a scroll setting out the particulars of the life membership, and signed by the provincial heads of the body, together with a very handsome corsage, the presentation being made by the local president, Mrs. F. Oslund, who spoke highly of the recipient's work for the organization.

Two other members were honored, Mrs. P. Renno, and Mrs. P. Grant being presented with gifts in recognition of 100 percent attendance at all the Institute meetings and events during the past year.

At the close of the supper the president proposed a toast to the King, and followed with a toast to the "husbands." This was responded to by Charles Ennis. The tables were cleared away and the ladies proceeded with their regular business meeting. The secretary-treasurer's report showed gross receipts approximately $488, and expenditures of $550.

mor with his asides, and comments on the articles for sale and the bidders.

Two most humorous incidents occurred, one when several bidders raised a bid to $300 to have Rev. Stewart Crysdale sing a song, and they were outbid by 50c by "Scotty" himself to have him not sing! The other incident happened when the auctioneer, having a hard job to raise the bid on one small item to $1 remarked that he would fall down dead if someone bid a dollar. He promptly got the $1 bid, and in pretending to fall over grabbed at one of the uprights of the stage partition, which unexpectedly gave way, letting "Scotty" down with a bang, giving an unintended realism to the joke!

The A.O.T.S. club was well supported by merchants of Kelowna and Rutland in their requests for items to auction, and to this no doubt, the greater part of the credit for the financial success was due.

Miss Dorothy Gray, R.N., who with the TCA as a stewardess, arrived home on Tuesday to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Gray for the Christmas holiday.

Hugh Fitzpatrick, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Fitzpatrick, is home from UBC for the holiday season.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bonner, of Nakusp, B.C., who have been visiting at the home of Mr. Bonner's brother George and Earl Bonner, left on Tuesday for their Arrow Lakes home.

Miss Glenys Ellergot is home from UBC for the Christmas holidays.

The combined choirs of the Rutland and Winfield United Churches presented the cantata "Bethlehem" by C. H. Gabriel, at the Rutland church on Sunday morning last, and at the Winfield church in the afternoon. The joint choirs were under the direction of Sidney C. Jones and Mrs. R. C. S. Crysdale. Organist was Kermit Eutin.

TOM WILKINSON was elected chairman of the Interior Vegetable Marketing Board on the final day of the two-day convention held in Kelowna last week.

Mel Marshall, the only retiring member, was re-elected for a three-year term. Other members of the board are F. W. Hack, Oliver, one year; and L. R. Stephens as shipper's member elected annually.

The Toronto Coliseum, home of the annual Royal Winter Fair, covers 28 acres.

Peachland Pupil Awarded Prize In Essay Contest

John S. Mohler, of Peachland, won second prize in the junior division in the pulp and paper industry's annual essay contest for B.C. high school students.

According to Leander Manley, secretary manager, western division, Canadian Pulp and Paper Association, over 4,000 students entered the contest. Final selections by the judges were made from 38 top grade essays in the senior division and 28 in the junior division. The Peachland high school student was awarded a camera as second prize.

East Kelowna W.I. Has Had Active Year Judging From Annual Reports

EAST KELOWNA—The annual meeting of the Women's Institute was held in the Community Hall with the president in the chair and 22 members present. Two new members were welcomed.

The minutes of the previous meeting were read and the financial statement presented by the treasurer.

The president expressed her thanks to all members who had helped with the turkey supper which was held recently. Conveners also gave their reports.

A report on the BCFGA meeting at which the Institute members served refreshments, was given.

Mrs. R. W. Rogers and Mrs. L. Senger, two members who have left the district, were presented with farewell gifts.

Conveners reports for the year's program were given.

Mrs. H. Hewlett reported on agriculture; Mrs. D. Evans on citizenship; Mrs. A. W. Rogers, health unit and publicity; Mrs. R. Smith, Mrs. C. Ross, buying committee; Mrs. C. Ross, Mrs. W. Hince, sick conveners.

Mrs. W. Ratcliff spoke on the home nursing classes for civil defense. Mrs. R. Smith, hall board representative, reported on the dressing room in the Community Hall, and members were asked to volunteer to repair the stage curtains.

The secretary gave her report on the activities of the Institute for the past year.

The following officers were elected for the coming year:

President, Mrs. H. Harsent; vice-president, Mrs. P. Stankov; treasurer, Mrs. A. Harvie; secretary, Mrs. A. W. Rowles.

Afternoon tea was served. Hostesses were Mrs. P. Stankov, Mrs. R. Smith and Mrs. H. A. Widmeyer.

Mrs. D. Evans gave the following report:

"As convener for citizenship for 1951, I thought it would be interesting to all members, and especially newcomers to the institute and the community, to hear something of the work of the Institute and our part in the building of the Community Hall which took place in 1928."

Sponsored by the newly-formed Women's Institute, Mrs. Evans went on to say it was financed by donations and a note from the bank to provide funds for lumber, windows, and doors.

Then a few years ago the Hall with the permission of the Women's Institute, was taken over by a board composed of members of the community, who are now responsible for its financial obligations and maintenance.

"The old building was moved to a more suitable site and rebuilt, and a furnace installed.

In passing the deeds, the Women's Institute is permitted to have the Hall for their monthly meetings free of charge, and one free evening a year.

Mrs. A. W. Rogers report:

"As health convener for 1951, I attended four meetings of the Okanagan Health Unit.

"An address and film on the care of the eyes was given, clinics were held for children in the rural districts.

"During National Health Week, there was a display of white rats, showing the difference in the un-

St. Laurent---The Ultimate Canadian

(EDITOR'S NOTE: Ten years ago on December 10, a new Minister of Justice was sworn in as a member of Mackenzie King's wartime cabinet. His name was Louis St. Laurent. Few people who observed the political scene in those grim days realized the consequences of Mr. King's selection of a successor to the late Rt. Hon. Ernest Lapointe.

Mr. St. Laurent has now been a member of the government for ten years. In that time his accomplishments have been truly amazing. Bruce Hutchison, editor of the Victoria Daily Times and one of Canada's best known writers, author of "The Unknown Country" and a frequent contributor to publications in the U.S.A. and other countries, has written a most interesting story about Mr. St. Laurent.)

By BRUCE HUTCHINSON

Mr. St. Laurent has achieved more in less time than any statesman in Canadian history. This statement is not a bit of banquet oratory. It is a mathematical fact. Macdonald became Prime Minister after a lifetime of apprenticeship. Laurier similarly prepared from his youth and, as a party leader, suffered cruel defeats before he reached office. Mackenzie King set his ultimate goal in college and needed thirty years to achieve it. Within seven years of entering politics (with no intention of remaining there) Mr. St. Laurent was Prime Minister.

But there is a broad, though intangible gulf between the leadership of a government and the leadership of the nation. At least seven Canadian Prime Ministers were unable to cross that gulf. They held office but they were never accepted by the nation. Mr. St. Laurent was fully accepted within one year. That is the final test of a Canadian statesman. That is the measure of Mr. St. Laurent.

A UNIQUE ACHIEVEMENT

Why this achievement, unique on our national record? How has this man teleported a life's work into a single decade, or really into a third of a decade?

It will be said that his success has been built on his character, as all success must be. That is true, but it misses the real point of Mr. St. Laurent's career. Many other Canadian statesmen of this generation have shown character and ability worthy of the highest office in the state. Mr. St. Laurent possesses something else which no contemporary possesses in the same degree—he is the most Canadian of all living Canadians. Outwardly and inwardly he is the image and essence of the Canadian people. He succeeds because the people have seen in him, almost overnight, the true expression of themselves.

ECHO WITH CANADA IN HIM

Mr. St. Laurent's descent from the two great blood streams of our race is obvious enough. He was born with Canada in him. A good many Canadians, however, have inherited the same twin legacy. Something much more is required, something also besides character and ability, to make a Prime Minister and finally to make an accepted leader of the nation, far beyond party politics. Mr. St. Laurent succeeds because his reactions to every problem, public and private, are so typically Canadian.

He is, above all, practical, seeking instantly and instinctively for the solution which will work. That is the instinct on which Canada was built from the day when Champlain built his habitation on the frozen rocks of Quebec to the present hour when Canada, as part of the New World, is returning to re-creating the balance of the Old. That has been the Canadian approach to geographical, economic and political difficulties which seemed to doom a Canadian nation from the beginning. Again, unwilling to lose the good in the pursuit of the perfect, and understanding that politics is the art of the possible, Mr. St. Laurent knows how to compromise. And Canada, in every aspect of its life, is and must be a compromise to survive.

A GREAT MAN BY ANY STANDARD

There is in him something else still more Canadian. Here is a great man by any standard of measurement, as even his strongest critics will agree. But he refuses to create and the Canadian people would never tolerate the postures and attitudes of the self-conscious Great Man. They seek greatness in their leaders but they distrust any man who parades it. No man, in politics or the other arts, has yet articulated what we call, for lack of a better word, the Canadian dream. Mr. St. Laurent is accepted by the Canadian people because, lacking oratory, the gleaming phrase and the grand gesture, he somehow articulates Canadianism better than any contemporary by being precisely what he is in public and private—a Canadian.

Now, it is commonly said of Mr. St. Laurent that he came too late into politics and thereby deprived Canada of many useful years of service. This also is true but misses the point of his career. For in fact—almost as if the timing had been carefully arranged half a century in advance—Mr. St. Laurent arrived, by pure chance, at precisely the right moment, for him and for the nation.

THE MAN MET THE OCCASION

He was ready, and he was schooled by seven years of intensive training, to fill the void left by Mackenzie King. It was not only in relation to Mackenzie King's retirement that Mr. St. Laurent arrived at just the right moment but in relation to a much larger occasion. Mr. St. Laurent alighted as it were, on a decisive watershed in the nation's life. From that watershed his life, like the nation's, has flowed in these last three years. This, if ever, was the moment when the man met the occasion.

The man we know pretty clearly. The occasion is still obscure and its outcome inconceivable. History's ultimate opinion on Mr. St. Laurent will depend upon his success, or failure in grappling with the occasion, with the two sovereign facts of his time—a deep change in Canada's own life and the sudden involvement of Canada in the supreme crisis of human life everywhere.

HOPES AND DANGERS OF A NEW AGE

By the end of the last war Canada stood on the threshold of a new age. It was not the age which Canada expected, for which it had toiled and bled in two world wars. It was the age in which mankind could see, for the first time in all its experience on earth, the chance of settled peace and prosperity and yet at the same time the danger of destroying, in a single explosion, the civilization of five thousand years.

For the practical purposes of statecraft yesterday was centuries ago and tomorrow a terrain where no man had ever set foot. Like all other statesmen, Mr. St. Laurent had no map of this unknown country but he had an asset which few people noticed at the time—he stood on the threshold and looked out on the unknown without any preconceived prejudices, without obligation to anyone since he had sought nothing for himself, without any promises to make good, without the necessity of justifying former mistakes, without commitments to any policy now obsolete. The nation was setting a new course. It had found a leader who could do the same.

A NEW INFLUENCE ON POLITICS

Now it will be found, I think, when all the record is in, that politics affected Mr. St. Laurent as much as he affected politics.

Politics, it may be said, revealed Mr. St. Laurent to Canada. One suspects that politics equally revealed Mr. St. Laurent to himself. But for his accidental entry into politics the whole of this man would never have been known to the nation or to himself.

For observe the record so far: Here was a country boy out of a country store in Compton who had made himself one of the chief lawyers of Canada but, up to ten years ago, nothing more, and it seemed enough. He had passed middle age and yet half of his nature, one might say, and certainly his highest talents had not been uncovered or even suspected. They were not fully suspected when he succeeded Mackenzie King. Only politics at the highest level revealed them to their owner and to the public.

FULL USE OF TALENTS BEGINS

At first, it now seems evident, the shock of his transition from partial to a full use of his talents was severe. For a short time, a few weeks, Mr. St. Laurent showed it. By the election of 1949 the shock had been fully absorbed but not in the fashion which most of Mr. St. Laurent's friends suppose.

It is said that, after briefly attempting to carry the method of the outlook and the manner of the law into the Prime Minister's office, Mr. St. Laurent, an apt pupil, quickly learned a new approach to the public. The factual lawyer, the rather theoretical constitutionalist was transformed in the election as the homespun, friendly, colloquial figure of the hustings. The legend of "Uncle Louis," given a name and label by some imaginative newspaper writer, seemed at first to be synthetic. Somebody, it was generally thought, had taken the Prime Minister aside and taught him a new act. His enemies, hearing those radio addresses which, for Canadian purposes, were as effective as Roosevelt's fireside chats or Churchill's eloquence, imagined that Mr. St. Laurent had been taking lessons.

THE TRUE MAN EMERGES AT SIXTY

The fact, like most important facts, was quite simple—for the first time, in the boundless territory of politics, Mr. St. Laurent could be himself. The whole man, the instincts of the country boy, the inherited qualities of a people living in Canada for three centuries, combined with the accumulated experience of his own sixty busy years fused in politics as they could not possibly develop in any other medium. At the proper moment—probably to his own surprise—he fitted into the Prime Minister's office as into a well-worn shoe. Many of his friends thought they were observing a new man. What they beheld was the true man and the whole man released into the element where he belonged. The people grasped that fact before the politicians. They voted overwhelmingly for a Prime Minister whose name they had hardly known yesterday and could not pronounce today. The man had met the occasion. The rest is the history of these three years.

Before leaving the subject of Mr. St. Laurent, the human being, to discuss him as the statesman, one ventures a purely personal opinion and a word of warning. Everyone knows his buoyant nature, his little, nameless acts of kindness, everyone knows and the nation rather enjoys his passing moments of temper. In this writer's few conversations with him, something else appears, very subtly, never in words, only in a passing gleam of the eye—the inner toughness of this man. If anyone still imagines that "Uncle Louis" is just a genial relative of the Canadian family he has not seen this man up close. Under the friendly surface there is firm resolution.

HIS PLACE IN THE TIDE OF THINGS

What of Mr. St. Laurent's place in the tide of things? What, apart from his own character, has he contributed to that tide?

We shall not see those questions answered in our lifetime. If we come back to the two sovereign facts of the post-war era—the organic changes in Canadian society and Canada's involvement in a world revolution—we may begin to glimpse at least the outlines of the Prime Minister as a historic personage.

Mr. St. Laurent did not inherit the society or the Liberal party of Mackenzie, Blake or Laurier. He inherited the society of our times and the Liberal party of Mackenzie King. In Mackenzie King's time it had undergone a complete, though quiet overhaul. The Liberal party perished in Britain because it could not change. The Liberal party in Canada, as one must agree whether one agrees with its policies or not, survived and flourished because it could and did change.

THE BACKGROUND OF LIBERALISM

Without going into its history it can be said, briefly, that Liberalism began in Canada as the champion of liberty from tyrants, both overseas and home-grown. The victory for liberty of both sorts had been won by Mackenzie King's time, and not, of course, by the Liberal Party alone. The greatness of Mackenzie King lies in the fact that he beheld an entirely new task which the Liberal Party by its experience was not equipped to undertake and that he so equipped it.

Society in Canada was free of tyrants, here and abroad; it had subdued the wilderness; it had made a nation. But with Mackenzie King the nation and its Liberal government confronted possibly the most remarkable fact in the human story. That is to say, for the first time since man appeared upon the earth he had the tools which could provide him with an abundant life. Once this fact is grasped by all mankind politics everywhere must centre around it. No statesman of any country or party could survive if he ignored it. No government anywhere could long endure if it failed to work for the emancipation of man from poverty, the oldest tyrant of all. In opposition, be-mankind politics everywhere must (Turn to Page 3, Story 1)

HEALTH UNIT MAY BE READY BY NEXT YEAR

KAMLOOPS—The fully-staffed public health unit which City Council and other city organizations requested half-a-dozen years ago may become a reality in 1952. Provincial Minister of Health and Welfare, A. D. Turnbull has informed City Council he is hopeful negotiations soon may be completed with a fully-qualified medical health officer to head the unit. (The negotiation between Mr. Turnbull's department and a prairie doctor have been proceeding for some weeks, and there already have been inquiries by the prospective public health unit director regarding housing and other accommodations here.) If a public health unit is established here, it will encompass the present Public Health Nurses Service. There are two such public health units in the Okanagan, and a total of twelve in the province. The public health unit is fundamentally a unification of the local health services of the municipalities and the school boards involved, and the appointment by them—on the Provincial Department of Health and Welfare's recommendation—of a doctor to direct and administer all the community and school health services involved.

DEAR SANTA:

More About 1 ST. LAURENT

Between 1930 and 1935, Mackenzie King and the Liberal Party saw the meaning of the great depression, saw that society could never turn back again, that a new society of some sort, under Liberalism or some other doctrine, would insist on being born. It would be absurd to say that Mackenzie King, any more than Roosevelt or any other contemporary, saw precisely how the new society would be born, what shape it would grow into, or whether it would grow into the wrong shape, it would perish. But at least the Liberal Party in Canada, for all its contradictions, hesitations and mistakes, appeared to the people as the only party which was ready for the new phase and could be safely trusted to manage it.

INHERITED A SOCIETY IN THE FLOODING OF CHANGE

Thus Mr. St. Laurent did not inherit a nation of a party settling down in comfort and stability after reaching its goal. He inherited a society in the very flood of a change throughout the world. He was not elected merely to head a government but to lead an adventure. How soon Mr. St. Laurent realized the scope of that adventure one does not know but certainly he realizes it now. How he views it, where he thinks it will lead, one does not know either. Mr. St. Laurent does not convey his private thoughts to the writer, but from his public acts and utterances I think it fair to say that his thinking does not fit into any recognizable category. Assuredly he is not a Manchester Liberal of the nineteenth century and neither was Mackenzie King. Assuredly he is not a socialist by any accepted definition, and the notion that he actually is a very conservative sort of man who stumbled into the Liberal Party is the most absurd of all notions about him and probably has been entirely removed by his work of the last three years.

His critics will say that since he fits into no accepted category and never proclaims a complete philosophy of politics as some other Prime Ministers have done he is therefore only a pragmatist, doing what seems to be a good idea at the time. There certainly is in him a strong vein of pragmatism, as there must be in all successful statesmen, especially in a many-sided country like Canada. There must be here, more than in most countries, the willingness to experiment and to take chances. The willingness of Mr. St. Laurent to learn as he goes, to be inconsistent rather than wrong, to look for the method which will work—that willingness is the most obvious source of his authority in party and nation. This is not to say, however, that he or the statesmen of other nations who follow the same method are footloose and lost, because they do not possess the foolproof philosophies which served their predecessors in other times. In fact, a new approach to politics is growing up in all the democratic states. I do not pretend to describe, much less explain it. It can be seen, however, that it springs from and is mainly concerned to grapple with the historic fact, mentioned before, that mankind now has the chance and is determined to achieve by one means or another the better life which science now offers him. The important question is whether that achievement will be with freedom or without it.

The new philosophy of Liberalism, recognizing that its old philosophy was not wide enough for this age, holds above all that the achievement will be worthless if freedom is lost in the process. That, one supposes, is the starting point of Mr. St. Laurent's thinking. The day-to-day methods of implementing it will be varied, often apparently inconsistent, and no doubt sometimes wrong. But as an historic figure surely his importance lies in the fact that, among Canadians, he is the first clearly discernible figure in this new age and is ready to lead it.

If all this is pretty vague, as it must be in a darkling age, Mr. St. Laurent's response to the other sovereign fact, the fact of immediate international peril, is as clear as daylight. There is, indeed, nothing to approach it in clarity throughout the history of Canada. Here was a boy in a small Canadian town, here was the lawyer absorbed by his legal briefs among a people whose life from the begin-

MUST APPLY FOR PENSION BEFORE DEC. 31

VICTORIA—While nearly 39,000 British Columbians have applied for old age security payments which will be paid by the federal government commencing in January, 1952, it is estimated that there are 6,000 other persons in this province who are eligible but have not yet filed their application forms.

"Payments to eligible persons commence the month following that in which the form is received in the regional office," W. R. Bone, regional director of old age security, said today. "Therefore, unless persons who are now 70 years of age and who have lived in Canada for the past 20 years apply before December 31 they will lose at least one month's payment. Whenever possible the registration forms should be accompanied by proof of age. However, if this is not immediately available, the applicant should register and supply proof of age later. This would mean that it would be possible to make retroactive payments."

ANOTHER YOUNG TORY BOLTS PARTY RANKS

Another prominent member of B.C.'s Young Progressive Conservative Association has bolted the ranks of the party and has joined the Social Credit movement.

Thomas A. Bate, second vice-president of the BCYPCA and president of the Dunbar division, submitted his resignation to Les Bewley, secretary of the Vancouver Quarters Young Progressive Conservative Association.

Text of Mr. Bate's resignation reads as follows: "Please accept this as my resignation as 2nd Vice President of the above Association and also as President of Dunbar Division."

"As a past president of the Young Progressive Conservative Association of British Columbia and as an office holder of the above association, it would be appreciated if you would convey to the executive and members that I have only taken this step after very careful study and thought. Frankly, I have come to the conclusion that those responsible for Progressive Conservative affairs in B.C. are not sympathetic to the wishes of the younger people and appear to be entirely oblivious of the interests of the people as a whole and the welfare of the Province of British Columbia."

"I feel that the Social Credit Party is the only answer to the present impossible political situation which exists today in B.C. It is my intention to offer to them my wholehearted support, as I would to any party that I felt had the interests of British Columbia at heart."

Clever, Colorful Ice Show Highly Entertaining But Few Turn Out To See It

By PAT MACKENZIE

EVERYTHING in setting from Christmas to mid-summer, and in mood from breath-taking beauty to side-splitting comedy was in the Connaught Skating Club's "Ice Extravaganza of 1951" presented in Memorial Arena here Thursday and Friday of last week. Sponsored by the Kelowna Figure Skating Club, top-notch skating stars performed before a disappointingly-small crowd on Thursday night, with the Friday matinee for school children and the evening show, proving more popular for local show-goers.

Choreography, producing and directing duties, were carried by Albert Enders, undefeated world's champion for seven years, and a former instructor of Barbara Ann Scott in Ottawa, with the assistance of Mrs. Enders. Miss Lois Hardy, local figure skating pro, directed the "Anchors Aweigh" number featuring juniors of the local club.

The troupe of about 40 skaters brought with them on their current tour, two truck-loads of expensive lighting equipment as well as another truck-load of glittering and wonderful costumes and scenery, which added to the professional polish of the entire show. It was fast-moving and interesting and brought to Kelowna some of Canada's top-notch champions in the world of figure skating.

SOLO SELECTION

The five-piece orchestra accompanying the cast opened the performances with an overture, following which the first number, "A Christmas Card," featured one of Kelowna's well-known singers, Mrs. Gwen Harding. She sang "White Christmas" as a pageant of old-fashioned Christmas card atmosphere was formed on the ice. Norman Walker, western junior men's champion, and Doreen Leech, starred in the solo spot.

Local interest came in the number presented by the Kelowna club. Composed of the junior skaters, it was a smart precision number to the tune of "Anchors Aweigh," and the youngsters in their sparkling white sailor suits were very smart indeed.

Tiny Joan Delcourt, young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F.V. Delcourt of this city, proved an amazing control of the silver blades when she won a spot in the hearts of all the spectators as she took the spotlight as the Kelowna soloist.

Blonde and attractive Elise and Joanne Koonts in a pretty pair exhibition. Charles Murphy, talented 16-year-old who has only been skating three years, and Diane Henderson were other highlights on the program.

A novelty act which went over big with the kiddies was "The Three Bears" act. Three of the club's male skaters donned huge, white fluffy teddy bear costumes, and went through a comic routine that was the cutest event on the program.

MEDAL DANCE

An added attraction, in response to a request from the local club, was a demonstration by Norman Walker and Doreen Leech of the bronze, silver and gold medal dance tests. Beautiful, and interesting as well, were their smooth executions of the tango, fox trot, and quick step.

The Hawaiian Fantasy, starring comics Charles Murphy, Brian Power, and John Gray, proved to be one of the best laugh-provokers of the night, as the "American visitor" "Honolulu" and the two "Hawaiian" "hula dancers" went through their rib-ticking routine. From the ridiculous to the sublime was the ballet event next on the program. It featured sweet Patricia Spray and the pink-gowned girls of the Connaught Ballet.

Also attractive numbers were the Connaught Four, Pat Spray, Norman Walker, Audrey Downie, and Brian Power; another comedy act by John Gray and Charles Murphy; and a feature solo by Brian Power, who has established the record for the highest jumps of any figure skater in Canada.

Of particular interest to Kelownians was petite soloist, Gayle Wakely, gold medalist, whose sister resides here. Her performance was typical of the consistent high standard throughout the entire cast.

"WONDER CHILD"

Connaught's "nine-year-old wonder child," capable Pamela Williams, proved her excellent ability and was a definite crowd-pleaser with her easy, naturally-responding showmanship. As young as she is, she is trying for the western junior championship.

Perhaps the most beautiful event on the program was "Down Mexico Way." As colorful as Mexico itself, the act starred Audrey Downie and Brian Power, Canadian Junior Pair Champions, 1951, and also featured Diane Henderson and Norman Walker. Complete with fruit girls, conga boys, other dancing girls, and Latin-American rhythm, the colorful costumes were outlined with luminous paint, and

MORE THAN 200,000 Canadians are now unemployed, according to the most recent figures of the National Employment Service. Most of the unemployment is due to cut-backs in industrial production caused, according to manufacturers, by increased buyer resistance to higher prices, particularly in stoves, cars, refrigerators, radios and textiles. The usual seasonal slump in agricultural employment has added to the total, but the government estimates that 20,000 additional farm workers will be admitted as immigrants from Europe in 1953. Only a little plowing is now being done in a few provinces.

Okanagan Trappers Travel Far To Rob Marten of Their Coats

club went through a march routine that could not be equalled by many.

VERNON—A total of 21 registered trappers in Vernon and district have been robbing mink and marten of their coats this winter, with a long range view to warming women's hearts.

And incidentally, through sale of the furs on the Vancouver auction mart, they are able to add a few pennies to their Christmas fund and thus increase joy all round.

Of the numerous men who once trod the traplines through deep snow and in frigid weather, only a score remains. For only recently have the trappers been required to register with the game department.

In the past, the traplines overlapped and trappers were often given to accusing one another of poaching. Now they are each allotted a portion of crown land.

The trappers extend their lines over distances up to 20 miles in some cases. Like the farmer, they leave a part of that line under summerfallow, so, to speak, meanwhile harvesting the remainder.

And the trappers sometimes get substantial rewards for their efforts. Take Norm Denison; he sold marten furs valued at almost $2,000 last year.

Henry Rotacher, Vernon, is another who has more than average success with his traps.

Marten and mink are not the only source of furs. Muskrat, a few beaver, fisher and lynx are also caught, although the lynx will not demand a particularly good price. But for information of those who see in trapping a nice part-time occupation, Game Warden Ross Farquharson reports that all crown lands in the North Okanagan are divided among the 21 trappers now in business.

Newcomers to the trade probably will have to go far afield to trap a fur coat for the missus.

KEEP WATER PUMPS READY AT PENTICTON

PENTICTON — Penticton will keep its Okanagan lake pumps ready for immediate use throughout the winter, it was decided at last week's council meeting.

The city engineer did not seem to be overly concerned. He said that even if the pumps were winterized, so as to effect some saving in electrical usage, they could "It would take about a half hour," he emphasized, at one point. And, if weather conditions developed in such a way it would create any alarm about water supply, there would be at least several days warning. He also pointed out that the city's mains were in better condition than in times past.

Meanwhile, the three transformers in use, supplying 225 kva, would be using up current through core losses.

On the other hand, this cost would be only about $25 a month, it was figured out.

For all it would cost, I say leave the pumps ready for instant use," commented Alderman Hunt. "The pumps were installed for emergency aid."

"This city is now better supplied than it ever has been since I've been a resident," declared Alderman Trichmarsh, taking a different point of view. "It would have to be a long cold period to do any damage."

But if a main broke, said Alderman Haddleton, there could be danger in the event of a fire.

The engineer admitted that this argument had some merit. Balancing all factors, council finally voted to leave the pumps ready for immediate service.

Location shows under the "big top" for Cecil E. Demille's "The Greatest Show On Earth" involved 10,000 spectators.

PENTICTON—Oscar Matson has taken over control of the B.C. Hotel from its previous owner, R. J. Adams.

Mr. Matson, who held an interest in the hotel when the company was formed shortly before the beverage rooms opened in April, has formed a limited company with interests held by Mrs. Matson and Leo J. Bower.

Mr. Bower was employed in the beverage rooms of the Incola Hotel but was appointed manager of the B.C. Hotel beer parlor when it opened in the spring. He is now hotel manager for the new company.

Mr. Adams, formerly manager and director, recently sold his interests in another city hotel, the Incola. He now resides on Vancouver Island.

WINDOW CRASHING PHEASANT LEAVES WRECKAGE BEHIND

NORTH KAMLOOPS—An explosion-like sound startled Mrs. Albert Derriek, 4 Roy Road, and badly frightened her little daughter, while the two were in the kitchen of their home. Turning to see what had caused the noise Mrs. Derriek spied a pheasant which had crashed through the kitchen window and was busily churning its way through some dishes.

When Mrs. Derriek attempted to grab the bird, it flew into the dining room, crashed through another window and went merrily on its way, apparently unhurt.

It left behind a few feathers, two broken windows and several broken dishes.

Special guests at the celebration were Mr. and Mrs. Louis Guidi, parents of Mrs. Ciancone, who celebrated their 40th wedding anniversary almost three years ago. ## FORMER KELOWNA GIRL MARRIED IN VANCOUVER

A former Kelowna girl was a bride at a quiet early evening wedding in Dunbar Heights United Church, Vancouver, on Friday, December 14. Rev. H. S. Clugston united in marriage Dorothy Rae, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Downing, of Kelowna, and Carl Louis Alm, son of Mrs. A. V. Alm, of Saskatoon, Sask., and Mr. E. A. Alm, of Vancouver.

Given away by her father, the bride chose a gown of gray velvet with matching shoes, and white accessories.

The church was tastefully decorated, by the bride's brother, Mr. Charles Downing, with mauve and white chrysanthemums, and lighted white candles in tall candelabra.

The couple was unattended.

A reception followed the ceremony, when about 40 guests gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. Taylor, 4749 Angus Drive. Mr. C. L. Maguire, uncle of the bride, proposed the bride's toast. Tell tales and bouquets of 'mums made an attractive setting on the bride's table for the three-tiered wedding cake.

Performing honors at the tea table were Mrs. C. L. Maguire and Mrs. Alma M. Grant, while Mrs. R. A. Dunlop, Miss Lorraine Cooke, and Miss Mary Taylor, assisted with the serving.

After a short honeymoon, the couple will make their home in Vancouver at 2190 West 38th Avenue. For travelling, the bride changed to a soft green iridescent tulle and black, complemented with a white orchid corsage.

Needlecraft News by Pauline Roy

THIS YEAR BE THRIFTY about your Christmas gift planning. Being thrifty doesn't mean you'll miss any of the fun connected with gift making and gift giving. Instead it means you can give better gifts which are more personal and more carefully chosen. When making gifts for others, you can choose something special that makes each gift outstanding. It is thrifty because many presents can be made from left-over materials, such as dolls' clothes, colored pieces of cotton for applique patterns, gay prints for stuffed animals and many others. Nice towels can be made from remnants that are often found on sale in the linen department of your local store. Place mats and curtains are other gifts to make from towel remnants. Use your odd pieces of colored wool for patterns in socks or for embroidery on mittens and caps to make winter costumes bright and gay.

Gifts in Crochet

Crocheting is simple, effective and fast to do. Many gifts can be made in a hurry if you crochet them. Lace doilies, lace-edged handkerchiefs, collars, and cuffs and stoles are all welcome gifts that are attractive as well as ornamental. Things made from crocheted cotton are long wearing and remain new and fresh after many washings. The range of colors from which to choose is large and if you purchase good quality thread, you can depend on the colors being dye-fast which is so important in the life of your crocheted articles.

Place Mats for Gifts

Place mats for luncheons and informal entertaining are popular at present. This smart set pictured above is worked quickly in heavy cotton which is firm and remains flat against the table. The directions, so simple even a beginner can follow them, call for coral and red... a good color combination at any season but particularly at Christmas. If you wish to have directions for making this set, send a stamped, self-addressed envelope to the Needlework Department of this paper and ask for PLACE MAT, Leaflet No. PC-5244.

Johnny Millard, right wing on the high-scoring Cloverchok-Bathgate-Millard line, fired home four goals and helped on another as Elks smothered Spokane Flyers 11-3 Tuesday. Elks' next appearance here will be next Thursday (a week from today).

Jivy Packers Ground Flyers To Tune of "The Big Apple"

SPOKANE 1, KELLOWNA 4

KELLOWNA Packers danced "The Big Apple" all over the Memorial Arena ice surface with the unwilling Spokane Flyers to beat out a convincing 4-1 victory and gain some measure of consolation for the double defeat suffered at Spokane a little over a week before.

Taking their cue from the huge red apple painted at centre ice in honor of the world apple packing champion and competitors sitting on the sidelines, the Packers jived to their third win in a row since the windup of their rather disastrous trek into the Kootenays.

The way the Packers were streaking, particularly in the first period, they should have been labelled the Flyers. Unleashing a relentless assault, they all but grounded the Spokes in the first period, outshooting the visitors 16-4 and giving Bev Bentley the impression there was more rubber falling around here than snow.

While outside the snow was piling up at about an inch an hour and cut drastically into the expected patronage, the Packers drummed up a 3-0 first period lead to clinch the verdict right there.

GOING GETS ROUGH

The loss was the fourth in a row for the second-place Western International Hockey League outfit, leaving them with a winless record so far since they hit the Coast Amateur and OSAHL circuits. Spokes lost twice to Nanaimo and once to Kerrisdale prior to starting out the four-game Okanagan tour in Kelowna.

"Playing Coach Phil Hergesheimer again inspired the attack, personally accounting for two of the locals' four goals on his seldom-wasted shots.

Another encouraging performer was Roy McMeekin with one of the finest showings of his career here. Although he had an easy time of it compared to Bentley (Roy had 18 shots on his citadel to Bentley's 32), some of the saves were of the phenomenal category that has made the Packer netminder the most respected custodian in the league.

FANS IN MOVIES

Hardly more than a handful of the 1000 patrons (everyone connected with this most unique of hockey games had visions of double that number until they were obscured by the blinding snow) were absent from their seats, during the two intermissions.

The first one saw the winner of the apple packing crown announced, with Queen Mrs. Roberta Willis of Yakima, Wash., getting her cup, silver tray and $500 cheque and smiling all the while for the news photographers, and the movie camera of Associated Screen News' Ross Beasley.

Even a portion of the crowd was filmed. Everyone will be wanting to see who's in the act when this news treatment comes to the local cinema.

During the second breather, Queen Roberta proved she's as good at being a sport as at stacking a crate of apples by demonstrating her ability. Again this action was caught by the movie news camera.

FROZEN FLURRIES—A booster club stunt that went down good with the crowd and especially two of the minor officials had Chets "B" and "C," as per apple advertising, "cook up" an apple pie, said delicacy to go to the player scoring the first goal in the third period. Nobody scored and when last seen the pie was a centre of discussion between MARLOW HICKS and KEN WINTERBOTTOM on who would get the larger piece.

Dislike over referee BILL NELSON'S calls broke out anew, with the kids at the west end ringleading the missile-throwing demonstration. It was the first time this year an extra call had to be made for the ice-cleaning equipment.

BENTLEY was removed from his cage twice, but in the third the FLYERS looked tired and PAC-KERS wouldn't give their would-be power-play a chance to jell.

LLOYD PENNER had a chance to get a game time to shoot, all in the clear, on the open cage, but he elected to try to get closer and was overtaken by a SPOKANE defender.

JOE (Sweet Pass)

KAISER was at his hustling on local ice.

AMUNDURUD was the only other Packer to get more than one point, drawing two assists.

HUGH SCOTT was the pick of the visitors, getting their only tally to leave for VERNON after the game to bunk for the night. KELLOWNA'S limited hotel accommodation already was strained.

Both PHIL HEGESHEIMER'S goals came at 11:01. That's timing things.

SPOKANE—Goal, B. Bentley; defense, Blackett, Luke, centre, Tilson; wings, Rozzini, Scott; Alternates—Mandryk, S. Bentley, Nadeau, McNally, MacCauley, Toole, MacPherson, Cirullo.

KAMLOOPS 11, SPOKANE 3 (Special to The Kelowna Courier)

KAMLOOPS—Kamloops Elks got back into the win column with a vengeance here Tuesday as they swamped Spokane Flyers 11-3 in an inter-league fixture.

For the Elks it marked an abrupt end of a five-game losing streak on home ice. For the hapless Flyers it was their fifth straight defeat on their tour of the Coast and Okanagan loops.

Johnny Millard was the big man behind the Kamloops attack with four goals and one assist. He snared a hat-trick in the first period as Elks swept to a 6-0 lead. The Flyers could do nothing to organize an effective attack against the red hot leaders of the OSAHL.

"To add to their misery, goalie Bev Bentley had a bad night letting in several goals of the soft variety. Lorne Nadeau was one of the few bright spots on the Spokane lineup, tallying twice for the Flyers.

A heavy snow, accompanied by a bitter wind, kept the crowd down to 1,500, the smallest at a senior hockey game here in three years.

SPOKANE—B. Bentley; Luke, Blackett; Tilson; Rozzini, Scott; Alternates—Nadeau, McNally, MacCauley, Toole, MacPherson, Cirullo, Mandryk, S. Bentley.

KAMLOOPS—Lussier, Taggart, Wilson; Bathgate; Cloverchok, Millard; Alternates: Hryciuk, Fleming, Jackson, Stein, Carlson, Brown, Terry, Clark.

Third period—12, Spokane, Scott (Nadeau) 3:33; 13, Spokane, Nadeau (Bathgate) 10:33; 14, Kamloops, Bathgate (Millard) 16:33. Penalties: Luke, Nadeau.

KNEE SIDELINES SMITH

KAMLOOPS—A serious knee injury may keep center Jack Smith out of the Kamloops Elks lineup until February. He was to have undergone surgery on the injured knee at Kamloops this week.

CROTHERS LET OUT

George Crotthers, defenceman part of last season with Kelowna, and with Nelson Maple Leafs since, has been given his release by the Nelson club.

Hergesheimer Tied With Three Elks In Goal Race

While still 10 points off the pace, Packers' playing-coach Phil Hergesheimer sniped himself into a tie for goal-scoring honors in the OSAHL, according to statistics released by Statistician Bill Padley at Kamloops, covering games up to Sunday.

The former American Hockey League star is in eighth place in the standings with 23 points, but his 17 goals drew him alongside three Kamloops Elks in the light-blinking department.

Andy, Clowchek, back on top of the heap by the narrowest of margins, Billy Hryciuk, who topped the scoring race two weeks ago, and Harvey Stein (all of Kamloops) all have 17 goals.

DURBAN PACES PACKERS
Johnny Millard (whose five points gained Tuesday are not included) tops the playmakers with 20 assists.

Moving up to sixth spot and currently pacing the Packers is Mike Durban with 11 goals and 15 assists for 26 points. Dick Milford is leading the Canadians with his seventh spot, while Dick Warwick tops the Pentition parade, tied with Vernon's Bud Andrews for ninth.

Kamloops' Lorne Lussier still tops the goalies' section with a 3.32 goals against average, but Cliff Dobson of Vernon and Roy McMeekin of Kelowna are close behind in that order.

ELKS LEAST PENALIZED

Pentition's penalty record is soaring: The V's, who have played less games than any other team, have moved out of the least-penalized bracket to crowd Vernon for the runner-up spot behind the Kelowna Packers. Kamloops Elks now have the least penalties with 223 minutes; Pentition has 228; Vernon 239 and Kelowna 329.

Teams' goal scoring averages are: Kamloops 4.68; Vernon 3.83; Kelowna 3.62; Pentition 3.26.

Ed Kryzanowski, Boston Bruins' versatile defenceman-forward, had taken part in every game played by the Bruins this year up to Dec. 9 and had yet to garner his first penalty point or incur his first penalty.

ONE SCORELESS GAME

There has been only one scoreless game played this season in the NHL, and that took place Nov. 6 when Detroit met Boston.

George Fenton Loses To Alaskan in Debut As Professional Boxer

Westbank's George Fenton, whose piston-thrust left mitt has gained considerable respect in amateur boxing circles in B.C., lost out in his professional debut.

Appearing in one of the preliminaries on a card in Vancouver last week, Fenton lost the four-round decision to a fighter from Anchorage, Alaska. Fenton signed up with manager Al Principe of Vancouver a few weeks ago.

Half-Done. But Goose Not Cooked Yet!

During high school at St. Mary's in Calgary we had a well-read and conscientious baseball coach. I can't remember his name nor can I recall his pedigree (Kids at that time didn't look beyond the year in hand nor have they improved yet on delving into past history or developing foresight) but I'll always remember his choice expression. It was: "It doesn't matter so much whether you're losing at the start, it's what you do in the final innings that count."

That homey bit of philosophy, picked up from someone else and iterated in hundreds of other ways, applies today to all Okanagan hockey partisans as the halfway mark in the 1951-52 operations has been reached. So take heart you faithful followers in Kamloops, Vernon, Kelowna and Pentition. All's not lost yet!

Inclusion of Kamloops may seem odd to some who bother to read this at a time when preparing the presents and tree for the kids' Christmas is more important. The Elks, one of the two to reach the halfway mark, are entrenched in first place, but not so securely that they can't be displaced. So remember, you Kamloops people: It's how the game is played at the finish that's going to tell!

Kelowna is the other team that's at the midway point. Vernon's only one game from touching the same tape while Pentition has six games to go yet to flick the 25 that marks the end of one half of the OSAHL schedule and the start of the more vital stretch.

PEEKING AT PACKERS

While space doesn't permit a full brief on the merits or otherwise of all four teams, let's take a quick peek at Packers' record to date. They have lost more than they've won but discounting that partly is the fact the Packers have lost five of their 13 games by one goal (one of these in overtime) and a similar number by two goals (two in overtime). Worst loss was by four goals; the remaining two losses by three goals.

On the other hand the Packers, in winning 10, have scored 91 goals to 88 against, taking two games by as many as five goals, one by four, three by three and two each by two goals and one goal. In wins and losses, in that order, Kelowna's record with other teams, both intra-league and inter-league, are: Vernon (2-1); Kamloops (2-4); Pentition (2-2, one tied); Kerrisdale (1-1); Nanaimo (0-0, one tied); Trail (1-1); Spokane (1-2); Nelson (1-1); Kimberley (0-1). Packers have an edge on only one team (Vernon) while Kamloops, Spokane and Kimberley have a slight margin on Kelowna. Kimberley and Nanaimo are the only two teams unbeaten, by

B.C. FISH, GAME COUNCIL SEEKS PROTECT TIMBER, HUNTING LAND

PENTITION—Discussion on the wastage of timber and hunting lands due to industrial development held a prominent place on the agenda when the directors of the B.C. Fish and Game Council met in Pentition recently.

Under the chairmanship of Avery S. King, of Pentition, president of the council, the executive studied the problem arising from the development of the Alcan project and the proposed dam at Buttle Lake. It was decided that the government would be strongly urged to prevent the submerging of any land by the Alcan company unless it is cleared of timber and debris up to the high water mark.

The council also agreed to ask the government to amend the Water Act so that the removal of the timber would be mandatory.

Ten delegates representing many parts of the province, and James Cunningham, game commissioner, heard Duncan Marshall, who acted as the council's representative at the Buttle Lake, report on what steps have been taken up to date on the question of the dam. He declared that Strathcona Park was Vancouver Island's only park and that Buttle Lake "is the backbone of it."

ALTERNATE SITE

According to Mr. Marshall if the power Commission hadn't got an alternative site at Upper Campbell Lake the conservationists would not have put up such a fight. He pointed out that the commission does not question the fact that Upper Campbell Lake could be used "but this is the way they want to do it," he said.

"The conservationists are not trying to stop the development of industry," Mr. Marshall stated, "but they realize that the damming of Buttle Lake would be the end of Strathcona Park."

He also stated that the conservationists are more worried about the natural beauty of the park than about the fishing. Logging the edge of the lake would mean that many of the stronger trees would be removed by the always reliable "Colony" in one game and still retain the rubber can be tallied on a pen-dulum.

In pausing to take stock of our chances of bringing the league gon-falon to the Orchard City, we have no cause to be alarmed or pessimistic. There are a few weak links to be strengthened or replaced, which the club intends to see done, well before the eleventh hour is reached. Yes, Paul and Alex, don't be too hasty in writing the Packers off!

QUOTABLE QUOTES

"It was the best fight I've ever seen," Jimmy Lowe, regarding Saturday's duel between Canadians Don Jakes and V's Kevin Conway, no longer the "Crusher" but the "Crushed." It all happened right under Jimmy's nose. "Doh! know what got into Jakes but he was madder than a hornet," Lowe recounted. Jakes hit Conway four times, cutting him with each smash of his fist. After Jakes knocked Conway down, he continued pumping him until his strength gave out. Jakes' arms moved slower and slower, until he just folded. Both battlers had to be carried off the ice.

"Durban misses Daski and Kuppelberg and there isn't a Kelowna line to replace them," Ernie Emmett, sports editor of The Vernon News, said. "Trail Smoke Eaters, in taking the WHL title this year, will begin the end of East Kootenay hockey," Larry Ratcliffe of Kimberley News.
